About Geronimo Stilton

Geronimo Stilton is the publisher of The Rodent's Gazette, Mouse Island's most famous newspaper. He is Rattus Emeritus of Mousomorphic Literature and Neo-Ratonic Comparative Philosophy. In his spare time, Mr. Stilton enjoys collecting antique cheese rinds, playing golf, and telling stories to his nephew Benjamin. He lives in New Mouse City, Mouse Island. He has a younger sister named Thea Stilton, a cousin named Trap Stilton, and a favorite little nephew, nine-year-old Benjamin Stilton. Geronimo is a nervous, mild-mannered mouse who would like nothing better than to live a quiet life, but he keeps getting involved in far-away adventures with Thea, Trap, and Benjamin, and sometimes Aunt Sweetfur. The books are written as though they are autobiographical adventure stories. For more info, games and activities, go to:

I just loved this!

Mathilda and Lola love Geronimo Stilton books because "They are very interesting, especially the Kingdom of Fantasy books, because they are full of adventure and mystery."

The Kingdom of Fantasy

I knew from the start that it was no ordinary day, but I certainly didn't expect to find a golden staircase in my attic. Up at the top, there was a door. And beyond the door was a world I never could have imagined - the Kingdom of Fantasy! Along with my guide, a frog named Scribblehopper, I set off on an incredible adventure to save the Queen of the Fairies. But along the way, I had to face giant scorpions, witches, sea serpents, pixies, and dozens of other creatures that I had only ever heard stories about. Holy cheese, what a journey! Could I save the Queen...and my own tail?

Geronimo Stilton

Although the series credits Geronimo Stilton as the author, the idea was originally thought of by Elisabetta Dami, an Italian children's fiction writer.

The books have been translated into 35 languages. They are intended for readers aged 6-12.

The series has sold over 130 million copies worldwide, becoming one of the best-selling book series ever written.
