Bassendean Memorial Public Library Newsletter

Issue 92
October 2019

This month in the Library

An English teacher by trade, a supermarket owner by day, a mum 24/7, and a writer by night. That's some of the ingredients that make up one of the most successful Romance Writers in Australia, Rachael Johns. In a relatively short space of time, Rachael has shown herself a force to be reckoned with, helping to bolster a new movement in Australian Romance writing.

In a small town, everyone thinks they know you: Charlie is a hardcore rocker, who's not as tough as he looks. Hammer is a footy jock with big AFL dreams, and an even bigger ego. Zeke is a shy over-achiever, never macho enough for his family. But all three boys hide who they really are. When the truth is revealed, will it set them free or blow them apart?

Holden Sheppard is an award-winning Young Adult author born and bred in Geraldton, Western Australia. His debut novel, Invisible Boys, won the 2018 City of Fremantle T.A.G. Hungerford Award and the 2017 Ray Koppe Residency Award, and was Highly Commended in the 2018 ASA Emerging Writers' Mentorship Prize.

DVD Review

Lucifer, seasons 1-3

Lucifer Morningstar, a Devil himself, escapes his boring life in Hell to settle in Los Angeles, where he runs a nightclub and solves crimes with his partner, LAPD detective Cloe Decker.

I started watching this show hoping that it will be silly enough to get me through the nasty cold and what a devilish ride it proved to be! It is silly for sure, but also genuinely funny and seriously good, and not only because of extraordinary performance of Tom Ellis as Lucifer and a brilliant support cast. The show follows police procedural format, but there is enough surprises to keep viewers interested : a great romance, sibling rivalry, ex-partners, parents, friends found, lost and found again, search for ones identity and a place in the word and an ultimate desire for redemption. -RP

The Whisper Network by Chandler Baker. (2019)

Sloane, Ardie, Grace and Rosalita have worked for the Truviv law firm for years. The CEO has just died and it looks like their boss, Ames, is going to take over. Ames is a complicated man who has always been surrounded by whispers. But the women have had enough. The whispers become chatter, the chatter becomes loud and then louder still as the women unknowingly set in motion a catastrophic shift throughout the office. A shift that will lead to lies being uncovered, secrets exposed and not everyone will survive.

I can definitely see why there is a lot of hype around it and I'd have to agree that this book is worth talking about. Aside from being a thoroughly good read, there is an important message in this book in line with the "metoo" hashtag movement and victims standing up to their abusers. I'd highly recommend this book and I would be surprised if it doesn't eventually get made into a movie/TV series. -BG

Railfest 2019!

Sunday 13th October, 10am-4pm

The Railway Museum (136 Railway Parade, Bassendean WA)

Adults $9, Concessions $7, Children $4 (under 4 years old free with adult)

Every October the Rail Transport Museum hosts the annual Railfest which is a celebration of the State's rail heritage conducted by the Rail Heritage Society of WA.

This year Railfest is celebrating it's 30th Anniversary Family Day at the Railway Museum and tickets can be booked at <https://www.trybooking.com/BEXOV>

The Rail Transport Museum at Bassendean is operated by Rail Heritage WA, and further information is available on their website:

<http://www.railheritagewa.org.au/>

The Rail Transport Museum is a must-see for railway and history buffs:

- It offers tourists and visitors a superb collection of locomotives and railway historical memorabilia that charts the opening up of the western third of the continent.
- The collection is highly significant as it is the only one in Western Australia that aims to tell the story of all railways across the state. Other collections focus on one aspect or a region.

Halloween 2019

Are you ready for Halloween 2019? Here is a super easy fun recipe from Taste.com.au that you could try!

Frozen Banana Ghosts

Ingredients:

- * 6 small ripe bananas, peeled, halved crossways
- * Chocolate/Black writing icing

Method:

1. Line a baking tray with baking paper. Insert an iceblock stick into the base of each banana. Place on the lined tray. Place in freezer for 4 hours or until firm.
2. Use the writing icing to pipe eyes and a mouth onto each banana.

Top Tip: To prevent the bananas from discolouring during freezing, dunk them in a mixture of 2 cups water with 2 tablespoons lemon juice beforehand.

'How to publish an eBook' workshop

Facilitated by

This workshop is designed to introduce writers to the skills and resources they will need to make their published work shine, which will take away much of the uncertainty of publishing.

The workshop will be comprised of 3 parts across 2 sessions:

Part 1: Editing and a writer's passion and potential

Part 2: The joy of a finely crafted eBook

Part 3: Finding a book's destiny - developing a book marketing plan

Please Note: There are 2 sessions. Participants are encouraged to attend both sessions as the e-publishing information is given in a sequential, beginning to end process.

Is someone close to you living with mental health challenges?

With approximately 20% of adults and 25% of young people affected by mental health challenges each year, it's important that we understand more about mental health and where to get help for ourselves, our family and friends and the wider community.

Join HelpingMinds for this one hour session where we discuss:

- What mental health and mental health challenges are
- Common types of mental health challenges and their symptoms
- Myths and misconceptions
- Risk factors for mental health challenges
