Is anything local of national importance?

The National Estate (Heritage Register) lists only one property in the Town of Bassendean, the former Enrolled Pensioner Guard cottage at 1 Surrey Street, Bassendean. Search:

national estate heritage register enrolled pensioner guard cottage

and look for Register of Heritage Places-Assessment Documentation PDF

The cottage is owned by the Town of Bassendean and is open to the public by members of the Bassendean Historical Society Inc. on the last Sunday of the month (excluding December and January) 10am-1.30pm.

(Gold coin donations appreciated).
