What's on at your Library

New Look!

We have moved some of our collection to make it more accessible.

Non Fiction DVDs now have their own space, next to the Fiction DVDs. Just look for the section with the blue strips.

The Jigsaws are now next to the Audio Books section. They are easier to find, just look for the shelves with the puzzle pieces.

1 August - Justice of the Peace at the Library; 9.15am-11:00am.
5, 11, 12, 18, 19, 25, 26 August - Rhymetime; 11.00am
6, 13, 20, 27 - Storytime; 10.30am
31 August - Lego League; 3.30pm - 4.30pm (bookings required).

Crafty Corner

We hope to return to the Library soon....

The Bassendean Library Craft Club is still going strong having moved to the great outdoors. As long as the weather is fine, we are meeting at Sandy Beach Reserve on Friday mornings as usual. Members are bringing along their projects, thermos and tasty morning treats. Julieta's zucchini cake went down a treat!

DVD Review

Jojo Rabbit. (2019)

Jojo is a lonely German boy who discovers that his single mother is hiding a Jewish girl in their attic. Aided only by his imaginary friend -- Adolf Hitler -- Jojo must confront his blind nationalism as World War II continues to rage on. The film presents a unique take on Nazis, Germany and World War II. That different view on the subject makes the movie really special & charming. Taika Waititi the writer director has such a unique and vibrant style of direction, he balances emotional drama with light-hearted comedy perfectly. Based on 2008 book Caging Skies by Christine Leunens.

Gender revolution : a journey with Katie Couric. (2017)

What does it mean to be a boy or a girl in the modern day? Katie Couric sets out across America to meet with leading scientists, physicians, and experts to answer questions about gender and gender identity. I'd recommend this for people who find the new terms and definitions gender confronting. Katie Couric has the same concerns and asks the questions that most people want the answer to. While this documentary won't make you an expert, it may help clear up some confusion.

Truths I Never Told You by Kelly Rimmer. (2020).

1959. Grace is a young mother with 4 children under 4. It's all she's ever wanted but Grace struggles with her dark thoughts after childbirth. When Grace falls pregnant again she turns to her sister Maryanne for help.

1996. Beth and her siblings have had to put their father Patrick into care after his dementia diagnosis. As she cleans his home, she finds a series of notes that indicate her mother may not have died in a car accident after all.

With postnatal depression, dementia, abortion and grief/loss all playing a main role in this book, yes you can absolutely expect it to have some kind of an effect on you. The book is told through three perspectives: Grace, Maryanne and Beth. I found Grace's truly heartbreaking, just imagining being in her circumstances made me extremely sad. definitely recommend this novel for those looking for a heartfelt and sensitive book which you won't forget. Local Studies Collection

1-31 August 2020 is National Family History Month (NFHM) in Australia and New Zealand.

National Family History Month (NFHM) is an initiative of the Australasian Federation of Family History Organisations (AFFHO). AFFHO is the umbrella organisation for family history societies in Australia and New Zealand. It was established in 1978 to coordinate and assist the work of Australian and New Zealand groups with interests in family history, genealogy, heraldry and related subjects.
